

STAR-STUDDED LOVEFEST

THE 34TH PGA AWARDS BRIMMED WITH GOODWILL AND HEARTFELT EMOTION AS NOMINEES, PRESENTERS AND SPECIAL GUESTS CELEBRATED EACH OTHER’S WORK.

WRITTEN BY STEVE CHAGOLLAN

There was a lot of love being shared at the 34th Annual PGA Awards. Tom Cruise, recipient of the honorary David O. Selznick Award for motion pictures, expressed his indebtedness to “a great number of industry legends,” many of them in the room, “who had the patience to hear thousands upon thousands of questions” as he was learning the trade. Mindy Kaling, who accepted the Norman Lear Achievement laurel for television, expressed her gratitude to several mentors, especially Greg Daniels, executive producer of The Office, who “let me write and edit and cover set when I had no idea what I was doing.” And Everything Everywhere All at Once producer Jonathan Wang, referring to his mixed white and Asian parentage, and how he rarely felt fully embraced by either group, said: “You guys shouldn’t have accepted me, you shouldn’t have welcomed me in, but I feel like family in this room with you producers.”

Keith Beauchamp accepts the Kramer honor for Till.
